

Johannesburg 2020 and Ahead

The city of our dreams within our reach

The outlook for Johannesburg's inner-city is uncertain. By analysing the context of the city's society during the Covid-19 lockdown, Urban Futurist – Gerald Garner – predicts the imminent redevelopment of Old Joburg into a thriving urban neighbourhood. This could show the way ahead for other South African cities. The future is urban and will undoubtedly require denser, urban living with quality, shared public space.

Provocative book by Gerald Garner of JoburgPlaces on the future of Johannesburg, and specifically its inner-city.

Available as full-colour, A5-size print book with text and photographs, as of 9 December 2020

Book launch at the Thunder Walker (110 Fox Street) at 6pm for 6:30pm on Thursday 10 December

COVER PRICE: R600

Only available by direct order or from the Town Treasures store at the Thunder Walker Place your order by emailing gerald@joburgplaces.com or sending a whatsapp to 082 894 5216.

Cover photo of Jewel City showing the route to the future of the city, by Louis van Zyl and courtesy of GASS Architecture Studios.